On Campus Department Spotlight

On-Campus Department Spotlight

What is your role in the department?

I am the Director of TRIO Outreach Programs and I manage the programs. TRIO Outreach Programs is a federal program run by UCSD that provides various services to students who are low-income and first generation college students. We offer tutoring, college advising, college application assistance, financial aid application information and assistance, cultural and academic field trips, and much more. During the academic year student workers are exposed to the level of detail federal programs run. We are looking for UCSD students that have a background in working with diverse communities.

What are some career opportunities for students that have a background in working with diverse communities?

Student workers gain valuable interpersonal skills, which are highly sought after in the workforce. They can link your long term goals to a skill you would gain working for TRIO Outreach, that is always helpful for job applicants. We also look for candidates that have ideas about what we should include? Let your voice be heard and fill out our survey here.

Do you have advice for a student just starting to gain work experience?

If you show genuine interest in learning the more opportunities to grow you will be given. Early on that you would like to get their professional support (and mentorship) along the way. If you have questions or comments? Email studentemployment@ucsd.edu or (858) 822-3471

How do the students workers benefit from their work here?
